

Task 1: Identify the topic on which the show don't tell is given.

Amirah shrieked at her on the top of her lungs, "I will never believe you again, you didn't cook my favourite aromatic dish." Her whole body quivered with an uncontrollable rage. It looked as if she'll eat everyone alive. Suddenly she kicked the chair and hit the table, the glass bowl flew into the air. Bang! It crashed onto the floor and shattered into a thousand pieces. The table was upside down and the food was scattered everywhere. Just then salty warm tears streamed down her pale chubby cheeks only stopping when they reached her swollen dry lips.

Ans: _____

Source: <http://lylrine.blogspot.com/2014/04/show-not-tell-from-my-students.html>

Task 2: Write a show don't tell on happiness or anger. Use action, dialogues, thoughts and descriptive sensory details. Images and checklist given below will help you make your writing vivid (6 to 8 sentences)

ANGRY

You can show being angry by:

- steam coming out of ears
- eyes glaring
- red in the face
- huffing, puffing, snorting
- hands on hips OR arms crossed
- body tense
- stomping foot
- veins popping out
- yelling at the top of your lungs
- clenching fists and gritting teeth

Saying Verbs
growled hissed huffed puffed roared screamed shouted snorted yelled

HAPPY

Does a little dance
Gives a huge hug
Giggles or Laughs
Skips

Jumps up and down
Has a beaming smile
Sings loudly
Eyes twinkle
Gives a high-five
Claps hands together
Toothy grin
Fist pumps in the air

Refer the checklist to achieve the desired outcome (For students)	Yes/No Use at least 5 adjectives to the description vivid(Show don't tell).
One of your sentences must be a simile/alliteration/onomatopoeia/personification.
Your passage must have 2 out of 5 senses.
Use powerful action verbs(synonyms) and adverbs.
Check the spellings, punctuation, neat handwriting(Grammar).

Image source:

<https://www.clipart.email/clipart/show-not-tell-clipart-146282.html>

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Product/10-Show-Don't-Tell-Posters-Helpful-Phrases-for-Expressing-Emotion-in-Writing-3581100>